

The Vermont State Colleges

Castleton State College

Castleton is small enough to be a community where every student matters, yet large enough to offer 30 academic programs, 20 sports, and more than 40 clubs. Castleton stresses community engagement and sustainability and provides exceptional programs for first-year students.

Community College of Vermont

With 12 locations statewide, Vermont is CCV's campus. Each year nearly 12,000 students enroll in 1,300 courses and 30 certificate and associate degree programs. CCV offers an extensive menu of online courses, and many program requirements are fully available online. CCV provides an affordable and flexible education for students of many ages and backgrounds, with easy transfer and guaranteed admissions to four-year colleges.

Johnson State College

With signature programs in the fine and performing arts, environmental sciences and education, Johnson State College engages students in the classroom and in the community through extensive field-based research, internships and service-learning opportunities. In addition to its 25 bachelor's an
